Describe your personality and character:	I am upbeat, positive, happy, driven and I love to eat healthy. I work out daily and love the feeling of working out. I've have been in three marathons. I thrive on challenges professionally and am always on the look out for opportunities to help others in life.
How would you describe your childhood?	It was very happy and healthy. Our family remains close and supportive to one another. We spend all holidays together and have the gift of being silly as a family. Very blessed!
What's your favorite childhood memory?	Riding quads with my family of course! Traveling around competing in cheer was also something I would never want to take back!
Who has been the most influential person in your life, and why?	My sister, She has been my rock through everything! She is the most positive and supportive person in my life.
What awards/accomplishments are you and your family most proud of?	Personally entering and completing a marathon was a personal achievement. This is something I never dreamed of doing and has proven my ability to train and accomplish something on my very own. Nobody can run that event for you. It's all an individual accomplishment. Next was moving to San Diego to go to school. I worked two jobs and paid all my own bills at 18 years old. Of course my family provided their full support to me, but financially it was all on me. It helped establish a foundation of determination and responsibility that would benefit me for the rest of my life!
Describe some of your hobbies and interests:	I really enjoy working out, biking, hiking, running and family time. I enjoy time with children and my nephews. There is nothing like knowing you can positively impact a child's life.
What sports or activities have you excelled in?	Running, biking and hiking. I was in competitive cheer for 6 years prior to graduation.
Describe any	I love to try things on Pinterest . Home decorating ideas are

Why do you want to become a donor?	I recently have been on staff for a local church working in a children's ministry. This gave me the opportunity to hold a women's bible study at my house. Half of the women in the group were dealing with infertility. Hearing their stories and going through the motions with them really really opened my eyes. It made me think of the gift I could give to someone. I know this is a big decision for both sides involved, for me the

	question is why not? If I could really help someone else out, someone who has a story just like the stories I listened to in my living room, then I feel like I'm the one who is fortunate to be able to be a part of something SO great.
Do you have a message you would like to share with the recipients?	This is a serious decision for me and one I feel is a blessing for me to contribute. I recognize this is not a decision easily made by anyone and I'm fortunate to be able to help a couple with the most precious gift in life. Life itself! I have listed above why I want to be a donor and help a family with this wonderful gift.
