Describe your personality and character:	I am shy and timid when it comes to meeting new people or trying new things but once I feel comfortable I believe I am a very outgoing and a fun person to be around. I tend to be the go-to person when it comes to asking questions or getting advice but that's okay because I love being able to help others. I am a loving and caring person and will never intentionally hurt a person's feeling. I am a hard worker and I know that I can get carried away with what I am involved in and my friends are always telling me to just let loose and have fun! Although that may be true, I prefer to spend most of my available time with my children and husband whether it is staying home or going out. I know that I am a young mom but I truly think that it has helped me become the responsible and affectionate person I am today.
How would you describe your childhood?	From what I can remember, my parents gave my sister and I a wonderful childhood. They had struggled to immigrate from Vietnam in order to raise a family in America where their children could have a good future. My parents introduced us to various activities like swimming, ice skating and piano lessons in hopes that it would help us excel in life. They pushed us to our limits, perhaps a little too much sometimes, but I know that their goals were to see their daughters have a future that they envisioned. It was hard to please my parents because they wanted nothing but perfection, but I know that because of my parents it is why I have the strength to keep pursuing my goals in life.
What's your favorite childhood memory?	My most favorite childhood memory that I am currently trying to pass on to my own family is "family Sundays". Since my mom and dad are Catholics, we were raised with the belief that Sunday is a day of rest. For as long as I can even remember, every Sunday we would be doing something together as a family whether it was having picnic at the park, walking along the beach or just riding our bikes around town. As I became older, naturally I rebelled and refused to be seen with my family. Now, since I have my own family I understand the value and importance it is to set aside one day out of the week to spend time together.

Who has been the most influential person in your life, and why?	The most influential person is my husband. From the first day I met him he was respectful of my goals and he did not push any boundaries. Although my parents did not approve of me dating in High school, it did not bother him and he told me he would wait for me because he knew I was the one. Once we found out I was pregnant at the age of 16, he stood by my side through it all being as optimistic as possible. Even though my parents had lashed out on him for "ruining their daughter's future", he was respectful to them. He has pushed me to achieve my goals and to never settle for anything less.
What awards/accomplishments are you and your family most proud of?	I would have to say that I am extremely proud to have completed High school and I was able to walk with my fellow classmates. Trust me, it wasn't easy trying to write essays and completing homework and I had to take care of a newborn baby, but I managed to do it! I am very proud of that accomplishment as well as being accepted to attend University of California in Irvine (UCI). I was accepted with enough scholarships and grants that I did not have to pay any extra money out of my pocket when some friends who had applied to UCI did not get in.
Describe some of your hobbies and interests:	My favorite hobby is scrapbooking . Although I have neglected my daughter's scrapbook due to the lack of time, it something I enjoyed doing. I think its because I have the ability to create something more meaningful out of the photos versus putting them into a boring photo album. I had picked up scrap booking after I had my daughter. She was the most precious little miracle God could have given me and I was in awe that I resorted to taking pictures of my newborn baby every day. Since she was sleeping for the majority of the day, I had that extra time to put towards making her scrapbook, but as she became older that time seem to disappear into thin air. Now, all my time is spent with my kids who demand my attention every second of every day!

What sports or activities have you excelled in?	I have always liked to be outdoors and I wanted to be on some sort of athletic team but unfortunately my asthma prevented me from being able to participate. Even now that I am older, any type of activities that required heavy breathing I have to stop since the asthma takes a toll on my body. Although it is mild and I rarely carry my inhaler with me, I am prevented from performing any strenuous exercise.
Describe any artistic/musical talents you have:	My artistic talent is the ability to take amazing pictures. I love to play around with settings and I like being able to capture those rare and unique "candid" or "picture perfect" type of photos. For a while I wanted to pursue that type of career until I spoke with a photographer and I realized that it was something I preferred to do for my own personal use and not as a career choice. A picture is worth a thousand words!
What are your future goals?	My future goals is to go back to school to complete my education. To continue to climb the ladder of success and move forward in my career. To save enough money to buy our own house. Last, to give my children a happy and memorable childhood.

	variety of films. I have enjoyed all the Marvel movies, the Nicholas Sparks movies and of course the Twilight movies!
Favorite Books:	I like to read Chicken Soup for the Soul series of books.
Favorite type of music:	I listen to mainly to station 104.3 MyFM when I'm driving. While I'm at work, I keep it on Pandora and I have Switchfoot and Kelly Clarkson as my two favorite stations.
Favorite food:	I enjoy eating seafood! I also love my mom's cooking, she makes the best Vietnamese dishes as well.
Are you a good cook?	Yes, I like to cook and when I do my family praises me left and right. I don't like to cook every night though since I do enjoy eating out.
Do you sing in the shower?	No, in my opinion, I do not have a very good voice.
What's your favorite season?	My favorite season is Fall. The weather is perfect, not too hot and not too cold.
What's your favorite holiday?	Halloween
If you could be animal, what would you be and why?	I think I would want to be a dolphin, They are free and happy creatures.

Why do you want to become a donor?	I suppose it is the fact that I became pregnant at such a young age when I know that there are plenty of struggling couples that are well qualified to become wonderful parents. I was not ready to become a mom at the age of sixteen, but I fell in love with my daughter the minute I could feel her moving inside me and I know that no matter what I would give my life for this little miracle inside of me. I want other couples to be able to feel that type of overwhelming love that I feel towards my kids, it is just amazing how much love a person is capable of feeling.
Do you have a message you would like to share with the recipients?	If it is something as simple as donating my eggs then I am more than happy to volunteer in order for a couple to have a child of their own. Even if it resorts to surrogacy, I would be willing to do that as well! I want
