	before so, my sister, paid for me and my mother to go. We all had a blast and it was a great bonding time for all of us.
If you could travel anywhere, where would it be and why?	Japan! The technology of that country is astounding! Not only that but I spent some of my childhood there since my father was in the military and it would be fascinating to see my old house on the base again and revisit old memories.
What would you say is your biggest talent?	My energy! I have energy to do anything and everything I set my mind to do. If there is an obstacle I will overcome it.
Reason for becoming a donor:	I would like to be able to go to college again and not get into debt. Not only that but helping those who can't have children themselves is very gratifying and has to get some good karma!
Anything we have not asked?	What would you do with a million dollars? Invest half and buy property with the rest. Property management is where it's at. And probably by a new car for my family members seeing as my BMW is dying with 491,000 miles on it!

BECOMING A DONOR

How long have you been thinking about it?	A few years. I was young when I considered it.
Being a donor is a big responsibility. It requires going to several doctor's appointments, taking injections and having a minor out-patient surgery. Our office, the doctor's office, and your intended parent(s) will count on you to be responsible throughout the entire cycle. So you feel prepared to commit to this process?	Very prepared. Things I sign up for get taken care of and they get done correctly. I am very serious about keeping my word and providing quality work.
How do your friends and family feel about your decision?	It's a private decision to make for myself. They can give me their ideas on it and I will listen but I believe this is a good decision.
What would you like to say to the couple who chooses you to be their donor?	I WANT TO HELP! Let's get the ball rolling. This is just another obstacle we can overcome together and there is no time like the present. Let's jump in!
Would you be willing to take a donor compensation of $5,000 to help a couple who has been affected by the recession? It may help get you matched more quickly the first time and if you choose to come back and donate again, you would be considered a "Previous" donor and would be given a higher fee?	No
Gifted Journeys strongly believes all loving and able couples or individuals deserve the chance to be parents regardless of sexual preference, marital	Yes

What were you like as a teenager?	Social. I wanted to get to know everyone and be active in school. Of course I was also family oriented to doing what I could to help out my mother and father.
Where did you grow up?	Some of my childhood was in Japan. Then we moved to Texas till I was about 12 years old, then to Washington (which is awesome for hiking), and now I am here in California.
How would you describe your family life as you were growing up?	Entertaining. There was always something going on and new adventures to go out and see together. We tried to stay bounded but dad did work alot so me and my sister were able to connect more with my mother.
