A lot of people do not have such a strong support system. I am very fortunate and will never take that for granted. |

| What would you say is your biggest accomplishment in your life thus far? | Leaving everything I knew back in Florida and moving out on my own to California, and getting accepted to CSULB.   |
| What do you hope to accomplish in your life in years to come?            | Finish school and become a field reporter for a big time news station. I would like to eventually look into documentary reporting. I want to travel!   |
| If you could meet anyone in the world, who would it be and why?          | How tough one... I really don't know? Maybe Cat Sadler because I think she's a great news anchor. I would ask her how she got started in the field and what her motivations were. |
| Tell us about your most favorite vacation:                               | Probably Hawaii. I've only been once, but the weather was absolutely amazing and everyone and everything seemed just so relaxed. Very ideal place to visit or live.  |

BECOMING A DONOR

|--|---|
| How long have you been thinking about it?  | Off and on for several years  |
| Being a donor is a big responsibility. It requires going to several doctor's appointments, taking injections and having a minor out-patient surgery. Our office, the doctor's office, and your intended parent(s) will count on you to be responsible throughout the entire cycle. So you feel prepared to commit to this process? | Yes   |
| How do your friends and family feel about your decision?   | I haven't told many people about this. The ones I have told are supportive in my decision.  |
| What would you like to say to the couple who chooses you to be their donor?  | I am so excited and overly flattered of all things. I promise to do everything in my power to create a trusting relationship with them as well as a guaranteed commitment to their future's well-being. |
| Would you be willing to take a donor compensation of $5,000 to help a couple who has been affected by the recession? It may help get you matched more quickly the first time and if you choose to come back and donate again, you would be considered a 'Previous' donor and would be given a higher fee?                         | No  |

| Gifted Journeys strongly believes all loving and able couples or individuals deserve the chance to be parents regardless of sexual preference, marital status, ethnicity or sex of the egg recipient. Are you open to being matched with all types of families? If no, please explain: | Yes |
| Are you willing to meet your intended parent(s)?   | Yes |
| Are you open to meeting the child in the future if that is requested?  | No  |
| Are you open to exchanging future contact information with your intended parent(s)?  | Yes |

FAMILY LIFE

|   |  |
|---|--|
| What were you like as a child?                                  | Very outgoing and active. Loved sports. I was sort of a tomboy, growing up with two brothers.  |
| What were you like as a teenager?                               | A little shy. Still very active into sports. Wasn't really interested in relationships until way later (probably due to shyness).  |
| Where did you grow up?  | Jacksonville, FL   |
| How would you describe your family life as you were growing up? | Very close-knit. I grew up with 3 other siblings, so it was definitely lively in our house. My parents raised us well. They disciplined us when they needed to (haha!) and made us work for our allowance. My family has always been a very important part in my life.   |
| Do you have any siblings? If so, tell us about each of them:    | A 17 year old sister. I envy her height (5'9"). She's very smart, somewhat shy, and a typical stubborn teenager! A twin brother. I love him to death. Very dedicated to his work, laid back, and has a big sense of humor! Oh, and we look NOTHING alike. He's 6'1", blonde, green eyes. I also have an older brother, 25. He's actually very to himself. Not as social as the rest of us. He's not really into sports. He's definitely a "mommy's boy". |
| Do you have any children? If so, tell us about each of them:    | No. One day, maybe. Once my life/career is set.  |
