Do you consider yourself introverted or extroverted?	Extroverted.
Who do you live with?	My husband and I and our little puppy Mercedes.
Do you have a significant other? If so, tell us how you met:	It was July 28, 2006 on a hot summer night, in Moreno Valley CA. little did I know that night would change my life forever. We met at a back year B.B.Q. I had come with a mutual friend. As my husband tells it "I heard her heels clacking on the floor and looked over to see a beautiful angel, hair blowing in the wind, in slow motion. I saw her eyes and knew she was going to be my wife". From the moment he approached me, our hearts knew each other we laughed and talked till the sun came up. Before I left he asked if he could call me, and we have been together ever since.
What are your hobbies?	I am extremely detailed with my passion and love of art. I'm able to express my deepest emotions through my work. I'm a huge history buff, especial for World War 2. I'm inspired by my country's patriotism. The heroic legends of our time, where the men who gave their lives for our country. They are an inspiration and true definition of sacrifices. I love to hunt for treasure. There is something truly invigorating about discovering something unknown. Antiques are where I go to touch history, to capture a moment of the past. Lastly are Movies. Film is another passion I share along with my husband. We collect only the best films.
Describe your perfect day:	Three hours before sunset, 75 degrees, light breeze. I'm on an Island some where in Fiji. I'm laying out by the clean

	aqua water, watching my sons, I will have some day, as they chase each other around with an oversized crab; there laughter contagious in the air. My husband runs after them, only planning to attack me with kisses. The waves are so surreal so calm and steady. The breeze blowing threw palms and the banana trees, as the smell of plumeria and coconuts fill the air.
Who is your hero and why?	My Heavenly Father Jesus Christ, he is my Lord and savior. The only true example of what love truly means. He died for the sins of this world alone; He willingly left his place in heaven to demonstrate his love for us. He paid our ransom so that we my have everlasting life.
If Steven Spielberg were filming a movie about your life, what famous actress would play you and why?	There are only a few actresses I really admire that have talent and who I think would understand the roll of my character. Kristen Stewart would be my first choice. She possess a unique quality for her age, her ability to articulate deep emotions and deliver astonishing performances is what sets her apart from other actresses.
What would you say is your biggest accomplishment in your life thus far?	There are so many things that have transpired in my life, that have been more like mile stones. I would have to say my biggest accomplishment happens to be my dream, come true. I married the love of my life. We've been through a lot together. He is my best friend that I can always count on. He is my shoulder to lean on. Every goal we've set to reach we have accomplished together. Our most recent goal was to move to Newport Beach and here we are having the time of our life.
What do you hope to accomplish in your life in years to come?	I hope to have our private investigation company up and running. I want to start a non-profit organization for autistic children that will give parents hands on

	training and tools, they will need to work along side of there child. A place they can learn and understand the dynamics of autism. I want to be the best wife for my husband and remain the love of his life forever. I hope to have a beautiful little home some where in Texas, with a few acres and 3 horses. I want to be a mother some day, raise 3 boys of my own, take them on all kinds of adventures and travel the world together as a family. .
If you could meet anyone in the world, who would it be and why? .	Well that' s kind of hard being that I already met the man of my dreams. Hum --- There are so many actors that I wish we re still alive that I could have met. Paul Newman, Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau, all of the Marx' s Brother, John Candy, Chris Farley, Phil Hartman and those are just to name a few. Currently I would have to say actor/comedian Jim Carrey. Ever since the first time I watched him on Saturday Night Live I have been a big fan. .
Tell us about your most favorite vacation: .	When my husband and I moved to Arizona we visited a place called Sedona, during the hot summer. The sky was full of huge Columbus clouds the landscape was breathe taking. That was the first time I had ever seen the red rock plateaus. I never experienced such beauty. As the after noon went on we got caught in a monsoon. There was thunder and lighting, so loud the earth felt like it was moving. It was a once in a life time adventure, the most beautiful experience I' ve ever had.
If you could travel anywhere, where would it be and why? .	When I was about 13 I got this beautiful picture of an Island that I hung in my bathroom it was of the Island (Fiji) and since then I' ve always wanted to go there. It is absolutely breathe taking, some day I will visit. .
What would you say is your biggest talent? .	No matter what career I get into I know my talent is in performing arts. I will

	always have a place on the stage. .1
Reason for becoming a donor. .1	It would be a great honor to help women .1 that have a deep desire to start a family but are unable to. Blessing some one with a life is the most priceless gift anyone could receive. Knowing I have contributed to bring life into the world would be amazing. .1
Anything we have not asked?. .1	I just hope I've given you enough detail in .1 my answers and if there is anything else you would like to know fill free to ask me. Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to help. .1

Donor Information .1

BECOMING A DONOR. .1

How long have you been thinking about it? .1	I' ve been considering this close to a year. But al. .1
Being a donor is a big responsibility. It requires going to several doctor' s appointments, taking injections and having a minor out - patient surgery. Our office, the doctor' s office, and your intended parent (s) will count on you to be responsible throughout the entire cycle. So you feel prepared to commit to this process? .1	I' m very confident in my decision to becoming a donor. I' ve spent a lot of time researching, educating myself on the procedure. I am fully aware of the commitment level it will take, and I' m ready to help. .1
How do your friends and family feel about your decision? .1	I want to take a moment to thank my husband for all of his care and support, he will be here to see me threw it. My family is also supportive they are proud to see me apart of helping new life into the world. .1
What would you like to say to the couple who chooses you to be their donor? .1	? To the couple who is considering me, I' m so excited and eger to help you. I would be most honored to be apart of your journey to starting your family. I' ve been considering this decision for a long time, and like you I too hope to start a family of my own some day . I can only imagine how perfect that moment will be, when the two of you find me. .

Would you be willing to take a donor compensation of $5,000 to help a couple who has been affected by the recession? It may help get you matched more quickly the first time and if you choose to come back and donate again, you would be considered a 'Previous' donor and would be given a higher fee? .	No. .
Gifted Journeys strongly believes all loving and able couples or individuals deserve the chance to be parents regardless of sexual preference, marital status, ethnicity or sex of the egg recipient. Are you open to being matched with all types of families? If no, please explain: .	I'm open to helping any heterosexual couples. si. .
Are you willing to meet your intended parent(s)? .	No. .
Are you open to meeting the child in the future if that is requested? .	No. .
Are you open to exchanging future contact information with your intended parent(s)?	No. .

FAMILY LIFE .

What were you like as a child? .	As a little girl I was well known for my large vocabulary. In fact when I was two, the first word my dad taught me was Zebra and I knew exactly what that meant. I would pose the question to perfect strangers to educate them or inform them if they didn't know. I would say, do you know what a Zebra is? And I would say with sure confidence A Zebra is one of many African equine mammals resembling an ass. My parents were very discipline with me and taught me to be a perfectionist. Growing up I always wanted to be out side exploring. I loved spending time with my animals. I loved taking care of my puppies and feeding my rabbit. I was very out going, independent, spirited, and communal. I especially enjoyed riding my bike around with all the neighborhood kids. .
What were	I was a good kid, I never did drugs or drank alcohol, and I was very

you like as a teenager?	athletic. I loved my early morning runs around my neighborhood. I danced all through high school; I was an actress and performed in several movies, danced for Disneyland, and competed in many other dance competitions. I was involved in a youth groups, and after school programs, such as flag football, and track runs. I volunteered for different Assisted Living Homes (Sunrise, Brazwells). At age 15 I got my first job working for NIKE in fashion Island Newport Beach as a client specialist. I achieved lead sales my first 6 months of work. I was the youngest associate NIKE ever hired, "They loved me there." When my mother got pregnant with my little brother I was always taking care of him along with my other siblings. People would say I was very mature for my age but I think I gleaned a lot from my families experiences.
Where did you grow up?	The beginning of my childhood took place in Riverside CA, on what they call the wood streets, they called them that because every tree on the street overlapped one another, and it looked peacefully and beautiful. We later moved to Moreno Valley when I was about 7 years old. My parents had been offered the position to work full time as Youth Pastors for the church we had been attending for over 6 years. We moved into a parsonage, It was a very nice house built in the late 60's early 70's, it had a beautiful view overlooking all of Moreno Valley it was just around the corner for the elementary school my sister and I attended.
How would you describe your family life as you were growing up?	I grew up in a middle class working family. At the time, before my parents had my brother Caleb and adopted; it was just my sister and I. We are 3 years apart she loved dolls and girly stuff and I was the tom boy. My father was a grocery manager for Stator Brother's, while my mother managed her own health club and personal trained clients. Through that time we lived in Riverside we had a great childhood. I always looked forward to seeing my cousins, especially because they were the only ones who liked to play cops and robbers. We were always running around outside making forts finding lizards or snakes. My Mother's parents were also a big part of our lives, they were always around. Since my folks were involved in youth ministry with our church, there was always a full house of teenagers. My parents have always had a heart for kids. I was exposed to a lot of culture diversity. Along with the youth my mother was an ESL teacher for foreign exchange students from all over the world. They would stay in our home all the time. It was awesome learning about different cultures and there ways of life.
Do you have any siblings? If so, tell us about each of them.	I'm one of five siblings. I have 2 sisters and 2 brothers, the oldest Sabrina, she is 25. My parents adopted her when she was eight years old. She came from a very dysfunctional family and has overcome a lot of struggles. She graduated from Sage College and works for a law office. My beautiful baby sister Savannah is 21, she graduate high school and is attending Cal Baptist University. Her major is Sociology and hopes to become a consular. She is dating a videographer and hopes to marry one day. My Brother Joey is also my cousin. He is 20 years old; we adopted him at the age of 7 after taking him from his drug addict mother who is my father's sister. He was exposed to a lot of exploitation no kid should have to endure. He graduated high school and joined the Air Force. He struggled with authority, and was discharged from the military. He is currently working for Home Depot full time, and trying to reclaim his name. And then there's little guy, my baby brother Caleb at 9 years old is extremely intelligent for his age with a 10th grade reading level. He loves to learn and educate me on all the new things he discovers. He really loves my husband and looks up to him like an older brother.

Do you have any children?
If so, tell us about each of them:

None.
