Donor Information

BECOMING A DONOR

How long have you been thinking about it?	3 years
Being a donor is a big responsibility. It requires going to several doctor's appointments, taking injections and having a minor out-patient surgery. Our office, the doctor's office, and your intended parent(s) will count on you to be responsible throughout the entire cycle. So you feel prepared to commit to this process?	Yes
How do your friends and family feel about your decision?	Supportive, as it is my body and therefore my decision.
What would you like to say to the couple who chooses you to be their donor?	That if they are going to such an effort to have a child, they obviously will love and care for it, and that is all I could hope for.
Would you be willing to take a donor compensation of $5,000 to help a couple who has been affected by the recession? It may help get you matched more quickly the first time and if you choose to come back and donate again, you would be considered a 'Previous' donor and would be given a higher fee?	Yes
Gifted Journeys strongly believes all loving and able couples or individuals deserve the chance to be parents regardless of sexual preference, marital status, ethnicity or sex of the egg recipient. Are you open to being matched with all types of families? If no, please explain	Yes
Are you willing to meet your intended parent(s)?	Yes
Are you open to meeting the child in the future if that is requested?	Yes

FAMILY LIFE ↓

What were you like as a child?	I loved the color pink, animals, and playing outdoors. I was very energetic, but also loved books, and read everything I could get my hands on.
What were you like as a teenager?	Dedicated to my school, friends, and extracurricular activities.
Where did you grow up?	San Leandro, CA predominantly
How would you describe your family life as you were growing up?
Do you have any siblings? If so, tell us about each of them:	Only child
Do you have any children? If so, tell us about each of them:	No children
