Describe your personality and character: . .	I'm an energetic person who's the life of the party and the quintessential hostess. I'm constantly on the go and even though I'm constantly working, I give what time I can to who and what I can. I'm passionate about my small family, my small group of friends that I've had since childhood and embracing everything that comes my way. I'm a giver and passionate about volunteering and helping people and animals. . .
How would you describe your childhood? . .	I've lived in at least 6 or 7 states before I was enrolled in high school due to my mother's job as a restaurant consultant. My father stayed in Korea due to immigration issues so while I didn't have a dad around, I had more than enough reinforcements with

	my older sister, neighbors, people from church and the kitchen staff. When I wasn't taken from a piano lesson to swimming lessons to gymnastics class, I was in the kitchen running through legs and chasing fish in the Koi ponds in the restaurant. ..
What's your favorite childhood memory?..	One of my best friends/neighbor was taken out of school one day during the winter because he was sick with leukemia. We were only 7 years old and couldn't understand how a kid could be so sick, he'd miss over a month of school. Our teacher was given the okay to shine a little light on the subject and we spent the day learning what leukemia was and just how it affected us as children. We drew "get well soon" cards and I was given the honor of dropping them off at his house. It was the first time I'd seen him in months because I was forbidden from bothering him or his family beforehand. He'd lost some weight and his cheeks were sallow but the most alarming part of his appearance was the fact that his long curly locks were missing. When he returned to school, the rest of the kids could see the affects of the treatments he had undergone themselves. In a corny but crazy act of solidarity, the boys buzzed their hair short and showed up with ridiculous haircuts shortly afterward. They all had stories of how their older brother/sister helped them and how they were grounded for a long long time. That always brings a smile to my face when I think about the good old days. ..
Who has been the most influential person in your life, and why?..	My sister has been the most important person in my life and the biggest influence by far. When we were younger, we were moved around so much, the only familiar face besides our mother was each other. She's 5 years older than me so most of the life lessons she learned, I observed and learned from her as well. She practically raised me and always encouraged me in my quest to break out of the mold my mother created for her with the etiquette lessons and debutante balls. She convinced my mother to allow me to play sports instead of Arthur Murray

	Outliers, Of Mice and Men and The Kite Runner are favorites of mine..
Favorite type of music:.	Some favorite bands are Ozomatli, Morphine, Destiny's Child, Atmosphere, Rolling Stones, Johnny Cash, RHCP, MGMT, Coldplay, John Mayer, Joe Satriani, David Bowie, Marvin Gaye, the Supremes, Bill Withers, Sia, Alannis Morissette and Whitney Houston..
Favorite food:.	Everything that falls under the category of carbohydrates should pretty much sum it up. I currently have hummus, fresh fruit, carrot sticks, celery sticks, Kimchi shipped from Korea, acorn jelly and yellow cracker in my refrigerator. I love to grill or sear salmon with a light Miso sauce and do Shabu with friends at home or do pho and tapas when I'm out..
Are you a good cook?.	I don't mean to toot my own horn but I've been told I'm a fantastic cook. I cook often for friends and host dinner parties when I have the time. I've had requests for my caramel turtle brownies on more than one occasion this year and that's coming from staff that work in a bakery with me!.
Do you sing in the shower?.	Yes. And I'm not ashamed to let anyone know that. I wish my bathroom was bigger so the feedback wasn't so bad though..
What's your favorite season?.	Fall. I like the leaves falling, the cool breeze in the air and the food that is abundant in that season. Imagine how many pumpkin pies are made in that season alone..
What's your favorite holiday?.	Easter..
If you could be animal, what would you be and why?.	I'd be a chipmunk. If I were reincarnated, I'd feel like running in the forest and scampering quiddly through the leaves and up the trees is exactly what

	I'd want to do . .

Why do you want to become a donor? . .	When I was younger, I remember my best friend's aunt being shunned for using an egg donor after years of no success the old fashioned way. She wanted to keep it private but news traveled fast and everyone from the grannies to the little babies knew her business at church. I know it's difficult to find someone who would be a close match culturally and physically. One of my friends from grade school had cancer and couldn't have children after chemo and to this day I still can't tell her about the abortion I had after hearing about her fertility troubles. I think about how lucky I am to have my health and the option of having kids while other people are going through such rough times conceiving. . .
---	--

Do you have a message you would like to share with the recipients? . .	I can't imagine what you two are going through. I hope what you receive from me gives you that family you've probably been praying a long time for. I consider myself a very lucky person when it comes to my family, friends and life in general and hopefully some of that good luck will be shared with you through this gift. I'm open to sharing anything you need to make the right decision for you and your future family. . .
